What are the priorities of the Live Music program?

- Grow capacity, sustainability, and innovation within B.C.'s live music sector;
- Revitalize economic activity and jobs for B.C. musicians, live music companies, and industry professionals;
- Support music tourism and performance opportunities for artists and audiences; and
- Support a broad range of live music presenters, including presenters from equity-deserving groups who experience systemic barriers to participation.

Funding Streams

This program has two funding streams, with separate guidelines and application forms.

- A) Live music presenters can apply for live music events through the Presentation stream.
- B) Live music presenters can apply for capacity-building activities through the Business Development stream.

Live music presenters will apply for funding for a project, which is a set of eligible activities and related expenses that the applicant is requesting funding for.

Eligible Applicants

Applicants must be B.C.-based festivals, venues, event producers, or presenters that meet the following criteria:

- Is a B.C.-owned and controlled corporation, registered business, or sole proprietorship with a valid GST number, that files B.C. tax returns. Applicants may also be not-for-profit organizations with headquarters in B.C. New companies and individuals acting as sole proprietors can apply, but will be required to register their business upon successfully receiving a grant. New businesses are eligible to apply for funding;
- Primarily exists to present live music in B.C., or fills a gap in their regional community;
- Demonstrates an ongoing and sustained commitment to presenting live music and engagement within the local music community; and
- Produces live music events in B.C., and assumes risk in programming, producing, and promoting of these live music performances.

Creative BC encourages applications from equity-deserving groups, including Indigenous Peoples (First Nations [Status/Non-Status], Métis, and Inuit), Black, People of Colour, People living with one or more Disability, 2SLGBTQIA+ communities, women, non-binary and gender diverse people, and other groups who experience systemic barriers to participation.

For previous recipients:

- Final Reports: If an applicant has previously received funding from Creative BC, all prior Live Music final reports must be submitted prior to December 31, 2023, to be eligible for funding through this intake. Grant recipients from 2022/23 who have completed their projects are encouraged to submit final reports as soon as possible, as final reports for returning applicants will be reviewed before 2023/24 grants are issued.

- Good Standing: The principals, directors, officers, shareholders and owners of all applicant companies must be in good standing with Creative BC, which means the applicant is not in default with respect to prior grants, and there are no outstanding amounts owed to Creative BC.

Not eligible to apply:

- Artists promoting or presenting their own tours or concerts; and
- Municipalities, spaces, or events owned or operated by any level of government.

Eligible Activities

This stream provides eligible applicants with funding for live music events, including:

- Music festivals;

Funding

Grant Amounts: $2,000 - $75,000 for up to 50% of budgeted cash expenditures.

Company cap: Applicants will be approved for a maximum of $75,000 per company, across the two funding streams.

This program funds activities and related expenses incurred between January 1, 2024, and December 31, 2024. Applicants are expected to contribute to the financing of the project and seek other revenue sources where appropriate. Total public funding from combined sources cannot exceed 75% of the budget; however, public funding from combined sources can equal up to 100% of the eligible budget for companies owned by Indigenous peoples.

Applicants must provide a proposed budget for their project, and declare all expenses and sources of revenue, including confirmed and unconfirmed grants. Applicants should only apply for activities they can complete and pay for prior to December 31, 2024.

Successful applicants will receive a 75% advance payment upon execution of a funding agreement, and up to the remaining 25% upon completion of the final report, based on eligible final expenditures.

Application Evaluation

Applications will be evaluated by Creative BC staff and a panel of industry professionals representing a variety of live music companies, industry backgrounds, regions, and demographics. Applications will be scored according to the priorities of the program, using the categories below. The Presentation Scoring Sheet is available on the Creative BC website.

- Idea, Strategy & Approach
- Company Capacity
- Performance Opportunities for Artists
- Economic Impact
- Justice, Equity, Decolonization, Diversity, and Inclusion

Once applications are scored, Creative BC may make adjustments to fill gaps based on representation, region and type of applicant, to support the breadth of B.C. and its music industry. Creative BC will prioritize applicants who have yet to receive significant funding through its programs, and applicants who do not receive significant operating support from public sources. For previous recipients, Creative BC will also consider the applicant’s history delivering previously funded projects.

The review period for complete applications is approximately 14 weeks after the program deadline date. All applicants will be notified by email.

Project Completion

Recipients are required to complete a final report detailing the impact of the funding by December 31, 2024, and provide invoices and proof of payment for expenses upon request. The recipient is responsible for issuing all payments related to the project. Acceptable proof of payment includes a bank statement, credit card statement, processed cheque, wire transfer, or e-transfer confirmation.

To complete the final report and receive the balance of funding, applicants must submit the following:

- Online Final Report;
- Cost report (template provided);
- Copies of all invoices and proof of payment, upon request; and
- Approved Creative BC and Province of BC logo placement\(s\).

How to Apply

The online application is available on the Creative BC website. Applicants may submit one or more applications for each funding stream.

Applicants with a disability or accessibility need may contact Creative BC for support in preparing an application. A limited number of appointments will be available for applicants to prepare an application by phone or video call with staff. Contact Creative BC staff a minimum of two weeks prior to the deadline to schedule an appointment.

Applicants with questions are encouraged to contact Creative BC staff prior to applying. Early submissions are welcomed. The Live Music program opens August 17, 2023 | Deadline: September 27, 2023, at 11:59 PM, PT.
