Live Music: Presentation Guidelines 2026/27

The Amplify BC Live Music program supports B.C.-based live music presenters, funding live music performances for audiences and music artists and enhancing music tourism throughout B.C. Funding will also support the capacity of the live music sector through business development activities.

Program Overview

Program Budget: $1.8M, delivered across two program streams (Presentation and Business Development)

Who is Eligible? B.C.-based music festivals, venues, concert presenters and promoters

Eligible Activities: Live music events occurring between January 1, 2027, and December 31, 2027

Grant Amounts: $2,000 - $50,000 per applicant company (across both funding streams), funding up to 50% of eligible expenses.

Applications Open: Aug 26, 2026

How to Apply: Submit an online application by October 7, 2026, at 4:00 PM, PT.

Aims + Objectives

- Grow capacity, sustainability, and innovation within B.C.'s live music sector
- Increase economic activity and jobs for B.C. musicians, live music companies, and industry professionals
- Support music tourism and performance opportunities for music artists and audiences
- Support a broad range of live music presenters, including presenters from systemically excluded groups who experience systemic barriers to participation

Funding Streams

This program has two funding streams, with separate guidelines and application forms.

A) Live music presenters can apply for live music events through the Presentation stream.
B) Live music presenters can apply for capacity-building activities through the Business Development stream.

Live music presenters will apply for funding for a project, which is a set of eligible activities and related expenses that the applicant is requesting funding for.

Applicant Eligibility

Applicants must be B.C.-based festivals, venues, event producers or presenters that meet the following criteria:

- Is a B.C.-owned and controlled corporation, registered business, or sole proprietorship with a valid GST number, that files B.C. tax returns. Applicants may also be not-for-profit or charitable organizations with headquarters in B.C. New companies and individuals acting as sole proprietors can apply but will be required to register their business upon successfully receiving a grant. New businesses are eligible to apply for funding.

- Core business activities for the applicant company, or business unit within a larger organizational structure, include presenting live music in B.C., or fills a gap in their regional community (outside of Metro Vancouver or Victoria's Capital Regional District). 'Core business activities' means that more than 50% of an organization's activities are related to the presentation of live music.
- Demonstrates an ongoing and sustained commitment to presenting live music and engagement within the local music community
- Assumes risk in programming, producing, and promoting live music performances in B.C.

Creative BC encourages applications from systemically excluded groups, including Indigenous Peoples (First Nations [Status/Non-Status], Métis, and Inuit), Black, People of Colour, People living with one or more Disability, 2SLGBTQIA+ communities, women, non-binary and gender diverse people, and other groups who experience systemic barriers to participation.

For previous recipients:

- Final Reports: If an applicant has received funding from Creative BC, all prior Live Music final reports must be submitted prior to December 31, 2026, to be eligible for funding through this intake. Grant recipients from 2025/26 who have completed their projects are encouraged to submit final reports as soon as possible, as final reports for returning applicants will be reviewed before 2026/27 grants are issued.
- Good Standing: The principals, directors, officers, shareholders and owners of all applicant companies must be in good standing with Creative BC, which means the applicant is not in default with respect to prior grants, and there are no outstanding amounts owed to Creative BC.

Not eligible to apply:

- Artists promoting or presenting their own tours or concerts
- Municipalities, spaces, or events owned or operated by any level of government, except First Nations.
- Other funding bodies or organizations
- Events that are primarily competitions, battle of the bands, karaoke events, or recitals
- Tours and album release shows
- Concerts benefiting one particular artist (or group)
- Events, businesses or organizations in the Metro Vancouver or Victoria's Capital Regional District that present live music as a secondary activity (culinary festivals, sporting events, parades, local markets, rodeos, agricultural events, or business improvement associations, breweries, or restaurants).

Project Eligibility

This stream provides eligible applicants with funding for live music events, including:

- Music festivals
- Concert series
- Year-round programming

- One-off live music events

Lists of previous recipients and recipient profiles can be found on the Creative BC website.

Financial Participation

Grant Amounts: $2,000 - $50,000 for up to 50% of budgeted cash expenditures.

Company Cap: Applicants can be approved for a maximum of $50,000 per company, across the two funding streams. Applicants requesting more than $20,000 across Live Music program applications or streams, must meet financial statement requirements.

This program funds activities and related expenses incurred between January 1, 2027, and December 31, 2027. Applicants are expected to contribute to the financing of the project and seek other revenue sources where appropriate.

Total public funding from combined sources cannot exceed 75% of the budget; however, public funding from combined sources can equal up to 100% of the eligible budget for companies owned by Indigenous peoples.

Eligible Costs

Applicants must provide a proposed budget for their project, and declare all expenses and sources of revenue, including confirmed and unconfirmed grants. Applicants should only apply for activities they can complete and pay for prior to December 31, 2027.

Eligible expenses include direct costs for programming, producing, and promoting live music performances in B.C., such as:

- Programming costs such as music artist fees, music artist travel, meals, accommodations, workshops
- Production costs such as rental or construction of staging, venue, sound, lighting
- Labour costs such as hiring event staff, contract workers, skilled technicians
- Event-related costs such as rental or purchase of fencing, toilets, permits, insurance
- Sustainable event costs such as eco-friendly power sources, reusable plates and cups, composting toilets, cashless POS systems, water refilling stations
- Marketing costs such as online advertising, ad placements, banners, signs
- Health and safety costs such as health and safety plans and protocols, equipment, training

Ineligible expenses include:

- Operating costs not specific to the event, including utilities, regular maintenance, corporate overhead, or salaries
- For regional applicants: if your event is not a solely music event, the Live Music program will only fund the music-related parts of your event. Other non-music activities are not eligible.
- Alcohol or other goods/merchandise intended for sale
- Liquor permits and gaming licenses
- Tours and album release shows
- Concerts benefitting one particular artist (or group)
- Research, commissioning, or other expenses associated with the development of new works

- Award shows, fundraisers, galas, mixers, private events, recitals, competitions and events where artists are asked to play for free, or where artists must sell a certain number of tickets to be paid
- Subscriptions, membership fees, or recurring expenses prior to this project
- Expenses paid in cash
- In-kind expenses or donated services
- Grant writing fees, legal fees, management fees, business registration fees, or fees for financial statements
- Work that has been paid up front but has not been completed by December 31, 2027
- Major expenses not included in the approved budget and incurred prior to Creative BC approval
- Activities that violate or infringe on any intellectual property rights
- Activities that contain elements of or promote any excessive violence, hate propaganda, sexual violence, sexual exploitation, cultural appropriation or elements which are obscene, indecent or child pornography within the meaning of the Criminal Code of Canada or are defamatory or are in any other way unlawful under Canadian laws.

Application Procedures

The online application is available on the Creative BC website. Applicants may submit one or more applications for each funding stream. The Live Music program opens August 26, 2026 and will close October 7, 2026, at 4:00 PM, PT.

Upon submission of the online application, key personnel will receive an automated Self-ID form to complete. The information requested provides Creative BC with information on representation across all programs. This form must be completed by October 21, 2026, which is two weeks after the application deadline date.

Applicants with a disability or accessibility need may contact Creative BC for support in preparing an application. In this case, please allow an additional two weeks to prepare your application. Applicants with questions are encouraged to contact Creative BC staff prior to applying. Early submissions are welcomed.

Program Evaluation

Applications will be evaluated by Creative BC staff and a panel of industry professionals representing a variety of live music companies, industry backgrounds, regions, and demographics. Applications will be scored according to the priorities of the program, using the categories below. The Presentation Scoring Sheet is available on the Creative BC website.

- Idea, Strategy, and Approach
- Company Capacity
- Performance Opportunities for Music Artists
- New and Expanded Activities
- Economic Impact
- Justice, Equity, Decolonization, Diversity, and Inclusion

Once applications are scored, Creative BC may make adjustments to fill gaps based on representation, region, and type of applicant, to support the breadth of B.C. and its music industry. Creative BC may also prioritize applicants who have yet to receive significant funding through its programs, which may result in smaller grants for previous recipients.

The review period for complete applications is approximately 14 weeks after the program deadline date. All applicants will be notified by email.

Project Completion

Recipients are required to complete a final report detailing the impact of the funding by December 31, 2027, and provide invoices and proof of payment for expenses upon request. The recipient is responsible for issuing all payments related to the project. Acceptable proof of payment includes a bank statement, credit card statement, processed cheque, wire transfer, or e-transfer confirmation.

To complete the final report and receive the balance of funding, applicants must submit the following:

- ☐ Online Final Report
- ☐ Copies of invoices and proof of payment, upon request; and
- ☐ Approved Creative BC and Province of BC logo placement(s).

Terms of Funding

Advance of Funds

The advance of funds (the "Advance") is non-recoupable (except as noted below, under Forfeiture and Default and within the Agreement) and will be released over two drawdowns (75% and 25% respectively), according to the conditions laid out in the Agreement.

Justice, Equity, Decolonization, Diversity + Inclusion

Creative BC is committed to ensuring program access for all, and incorporating justice, equity, decolonization, diversity and inclusion in program delivery. Learn more.

Use of Artificial Intelligence Technology

Applicants using Artificial Intelligence (AI) technology should refer to the Province of British Columbia's "Draft artificial intelligence responsible use principles". Particularly the principles of transparency, accountability and fairness in how they relate to this program.

The use of Artificial Intelligence (AI) technology must be disclosed and outlined in the application.

This applies to:

- The use of AI to prepare the application form and all supporting materials; and
- The use of AI in the creation of content or otherwise, for projects supported by Creative BC.

It is the responsibility of the applicant to ensure that all applications and projects have access to all underlying rights including content that is created with the assistance of AI technology.

Respectful Workplace + Client and Partner Code of Conduct

As a catalyst for, and investor in B.C.'s creative industries, Creative BC is committed to supporting a healthy ecosystem that thrives in a culture of mutual respect, dignity and inclusivity that is free from any form of harassment, discrimination, and violence. All companies that work with, or seek funding from, Creative BC are expected to adhere to Creative BC's Code of Conduct for Clients, Partners, and Stakeholders, implement policies and procedures for a harassment-free workplace, and comply with relevant laws. Creative BC is a signatory of the Creative Industries Code and expects all applicants, recipients, and partners to also adhere to this Code of Conduct.

Forfeiture and Default

A completion date is noted on the Agreement by which all deliverables will be submitted. Should all materials not be provided by the completion date, the eligible applicant forfeits any outstanding drawdown amounts and the commitment will be reduced by this amount.

Should an eligible applicant be placed in default- according to the terms of the Agreement, this limits the applicant, its principals and any parent or subsidiary companies from accessing further funding from Creative BC. In addition, Creative BC reserves the right to request immediate repayment of any funds advanced.

Environmental Sustainability

Creative BC encourages the music industry to adopt and implement environmentally sustainable practices and reduce environmental impacts. Applicants are asked to use clean energy sources, minimize waste and pollution, travel responsibly, and choose vendors and collaborators with a track record of operating sustainably.

Application Checklist

Applicants must complete and submit the following items in Windows compatible formats:

Required for all applicants:
